ACCEPTING EACH OTHER
Romans 14:1-13, Part 28
Pastor Jeff Wall
October 3, 2010

Since the church at Rome was composed of believers from many different religious, cultural, and racial backgrounds, there were widely varying opinions regarding lifestyle issues that weren't clearly defined in Scripture. In this passage Paul shows how to maintain unity in the church by learning to "agree to disagree agreeably" and accepting each other in love.

I. "DISPUTABLE MATTERS": THEN AND NOW

Definition:

Then:

Now:

II. THE SOLUTION: _____ (vs. 1)

III. HOW DO I DO IT?

1. _____ (vs. 1-2)
   Two groups: the Weak & the Strong

2. _____ (vs. 3)
   Matt. 7:1-5

3. _____ (vs. 4)

IV. WHY AM I TO ACCEPT THOSE WHO DISAGREE WITH ME?

1. _____ (vs. 3)

2. _____ (vs. 4)

3. _____ (vs. 5-6)
   1 Cor. 4:3-5

4. _____ (vs.7)
   Rom. 12:5

5. _____ (vs. 8-9)

6. _____ (vs. 10-12)

Conclusion: vs. 13

Notes